BSU DANCE AND PEP

The Black Student Union is formed to bring together the Black students and make them aware of their culture.

In February, the BSU members put together a show with dancing, singing and skits. It had a big turn-out. So did the BSU dinner, which was held in May. The BSU also gave a dance that was successful. The officers were: President, Bridgette Jones; Vice-President, Angela Pittman; Secretary, Gail Brannon; and Treasurer, Rena Moore.

This year's dance team was mostly made up of BSU members. They wore a dark blue and light blue gaucho suit with a dark and light blue cowl neck. Their shoes and socks also matched in shades of blue. The girls performed different dances to various records. They performed at half time at the Benson games and at some assemblies.

The Pep Club was formed to help the rally girls lead yells. They wore blue jeans and an orange top with their names written across the front. The Pep club was at every game and sat in the front row behind the rally girls. Kimberly Spencer and Susan Allen formed the group.

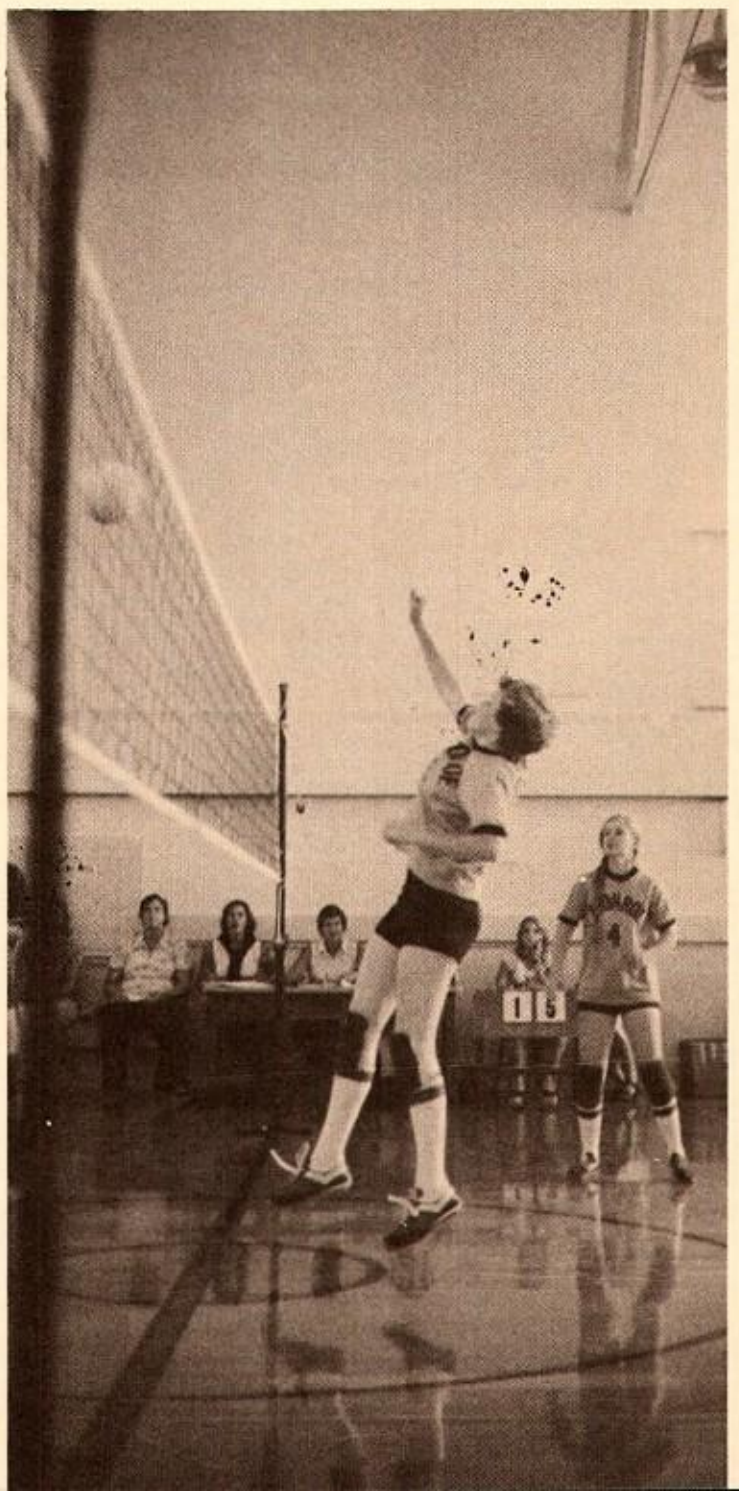
SPRING



BASKETBALL AND SWIMMING

This was the third year for PIL basketball and this season was also the best for Monroe. The season began with a good start. In pre-season, Monroe won two games. For the whole season, Monroe won four games. The coaches for basketball were Mr. Luizzi and Mrs. Egbers. Even though the Monroe did not win every game, the girls on the team feel it was a good season.

Miss Layfield was the swimming coach for the 1976-1977 season. All of the swimming meets were held at Lewis and Clark College. The members of the swimming team began practice every morning at 6:30 a.m. and practiced until 7:30 a.m. The season began in November and lasted through February. Even though the team was not successful in all their meets, they feel it was a good year.

TRACK AND TENNIS

This year the track team numbered about 30 members. Ms. Cook and Mr. Abrahamson coached the team. Marilyn Woodley, Linda Dienstel, and Deseri Johnson represented Monroe at the state tournament. Linda Dienstel placed third in the javelin. This was a year of success and large participation for the Monroe track team.

The tennis team had seven members. They were coached by Mrs. Egbers, a teacher at a Portland elementary school. The team practiced every day after school in the spring. They used the Portland Indoor Tennis Center for practice. Eileen Cebula was the only member to go to state. She took second place in the city tournament.

SOFTBALL AND TALENT SHOWS

The spring of 1977 was the first year for James Monroe students to participate in the PIL softball league. Monroe had a record of four wins and two losses at the end of the season. They also tied with Lincoln for second place in the city at the end of the season. Coach for the softball team was Ms. Judy McGuinn.

Every year members of the four classes present a talent show to the student body. Of the three underclass groups, only the sophomore and freshman class members presented a talent show. Each show had a sampling of the variety of talent found in that class.

Saturday, May 14, the seniors of Monroe and their dates arrived at the Thunderbird in Jantzen Beach, dressed in formals and tuxedos. At 6:30 p.m., the couples sat down to a steak dinner with all the trimmings.

After dinner, the prom queens, Jane Pumpitus and Patti Cole, and their court were announced. The rest of the court included Norma Reese, Gwen Stegman, Grace Maldonado and Sheila Sylvester. The dancing began to the theme of "Time of Our Lives." Popular music was provided by Easy Money.

According to members of the senior class who attended the prom, it was a big success. Pop and a special cake provided refreshments during the dance.

I worked really hard and put a lot of effort into a yearbook that I hope everyone will like. I would like to thank these people for helping me: Mrs. Erin J. Handy, my advisor and very close friend, and her husband, Mr. Kenneth Handy; Mr. Bob Paffrath and his wife, my yearbook representatives from Josten's American; Sharon Mann for her beautiful art work on this page; and my whole staff and all the teachers that let me run errands during this frantic year.

Sincerely,

Lorna Gayle Russell
